

Markus Kempen

Diplom-Agraringenieur

Nussallee 21, Haus 1
Tel.: 02 28 / 73 25 77 Fax: 02 28 / 98 22 92 3

private:

Süggeratherstrasse 20
52511 Geilenkirchen
Tel.: 0172 / 6176477

Research interest:

- Quantitative agricultural sector analysis (CAPRI - DynaSpat Project)
- Policy information systems
- Linking economic and biophysical models
- GIS aided spatial disaggregation of CAPRI parameters
- Spatial econometric methodology

Research projects:

- Integration of economic and biophysical models for the analysis of environmental impacts of political programs in the EU

Academic education:

Oct. 1994 - Jun. 2000 Agricultural sciences (economic and social sciences in agriculture) and diploma (Dipl.-Ing. agr.) Bonn University

Aug. 1993 - Jul. 1994 Agricultural practice year

1993 Abitur (high-school degree)
St. Ursula Gymnasium, Geilenkirchen

Work experience:

since Jan. 2004 Research Assistant at Institute for Agricultural Policy University Bonn

Sep. 1998 -
Dez. 2004 Organizer of collaborative sugarbeet transport for farmers incorporated in
"Maschinenring Rheinland West"

Since 1998 work on family farm (specialised pig production)