

AFECO Newsletter July 2021

Exam Period

We wish all of you good luck with studying and your exams! To make it easier for you to come through this stressful time we provide some nice recommendations for you, look at the end of the newsletter :)

AFECO Coordinator

In July, Maximilian Jatzlau (maximilian.jatzlau@ilr.uni-bonn.de) will take over the position of the coordinator for one month. So, if you have any questions during this time, feel free to contact him directly.

This also means that James Henderson is leaving the job and at this point we would like to thank him for his work during the last three months! Taking over an interim position is never easy, and we are even more grateful to you, James, for always being available for us students as a contact person. All the best for you!

In the August issue we will then inform you about the new program coordinator who will take over the position for permanently.

Adjustments of the examination regulations

Due to the Corona Pandemic, the University of Bonn has decided that students will have one retake for each exam taken and failed in the summer semester 2021. These regulations apply only once per module. Likewise, a withdrawal from the examination attempt without giving reasons as well as the revocation during the examination are possible until the submission of a written examination or until the end of an oral examination. These details are preliminary, as they still need to be confirmed by the examination office of the Faculty of Agriculture. Corresponding information will be communicated by mail.

From 10:00 - 12:00 the 19th PhenoRob Seminar Series will take place via Zoom (Meeting-ID: 991 9585 6880, PW: 505772). All students who are interested can join the meeting. ## Gastronomy in Bonn

Now that summer is here and restaurants and bars have just opened again, we have asked some of our fellow students for their secret spots to drink and eat in the city and around. In case you need a break from studying, you may get yourself a treat and explore what Bonn can offer foodwise.

Recommendations from Richard:

Elefant (Sternstraße 78, 53111 Bonn)

The Elefant has a nice ambiance and is in the middle of the city. They offer beautifully arranged classic dishes. As the saying goes: you eat with your eyes first!

Steinbeck (Breite Str. 35, 53111 Bonn)

The pub is located in the old town and is run by a young guy himself. It is characterized by good vibes and invites you to watch soccer matches together.

Dubliner Irish Pub (Maxstraße 18-20, 53111 Bonn)

If you like beer pong, this is the right place! Battling other beer pong teams successfully, big rewards are waiting for you, however, professionals are often on the road here so you may need some luck.

Recommendations from Sandy:

Makiman (Sternstorbrücke 11, 53111 Bonn)

With three different locations in the city, definitely the place for sushi in Bonn. They also offer other dishes such as the Korean bibimap. If you fancy an Asian fusion dish, this is the place to stop.

Rheinpavillon (Rathenauufer 1, 53113 Bonn)

A little pricy, but as close to the Rhine as you can get. Especially for drinks, the Rheinpavillon allows you to watch the river flow by and get a refreshing drink.

Pie Me (Frongasse 32, 53121 Bonn)

The place is run by two girls and can provide you with nine different pies, pie menus, coffee and refreshing drinks. So next time you are in Endenich you may want to taste one of their creations.

Recommendation from Lara:

Frau Kreuzberg (Kreuzt weg 2, 53115 Bonn)

Close to the university library, the little café offers a selection of drinks, breakfasts, and lunch dishes. In case you need something to cheer you up, they also bake yummy cakes.

Recommendations from Christian:

Biergarten Alter Zoll (Brassertufer, 53113 Bonn)

The beer garden "Alter Zoll" is located very close to the main building of the University of Bonn. In the sunshine and surrounded by trees you have a beautiful view of the Rhine and can enjoy cool drinks and hot food.

Bikini Beach Lounge (Karl-Duwe-Straße 1, 53227 Bonn)

Close to the Rhine is also the "Bikini Beach Lounge" in Bonn Oberkassel. Here you can relax in a deck chair with a cold cocktail on white sand. Every week, DJs also play house and techno sets here.

Gut Sülz Weingarten (Bachstraße 157, 53639 Königswinter)

The "Gut Sülz Weingarten" is located in Königswinter and is surrounded by vineyards. Especially after a hike in the Siebengebirge, this place is suitable for a time out. The homemade tarte flambée are highly recommended.

In case you need a change of scenery and activity: Bleibtreusee (Brühl)

The "Bleibtreusee" in Brühl is suitable both for cooling off in warm weather and for lots of action. In addition to water skiing, you can also go wake-boarding or surf on an artificial wave here.
